

11. Was the note due and in arrears on August 1st, 1930?

A It was.

12. Do you have any knowledge of what the money loaned on this note went for?

A I have not.

13. What is the whole amount due?

A The balance due on this note is Eighty-two Dollars and Fifty ($82.50) Cents, making a total amount due on the two notes of Two Hundred Twenty-five Dollars and Forty-seven ($225.47) Cents.

To the General Interrogatory. Nothing more.

Signature of witness waived.

Annie May Rice, a witness of lawful age, produced upon the part of the plaintiff, having been first duly sworn and examined, deposes and says as follows:

Examination conducted by Mr. Wood.

1. State your name, age and residence.

A My name is Annie May Rice. I am 73 years of age and reside at Mountain Dale, near Thurmont, in Frederick County, Maryland.

2. Mrs. Rice, what relation, if any, were you to Susan V. Reynolds.

A She was my own sister.

3. Was your sister married more than once?

A No, sir, only to Mr. Reynolds.

4. Did she leave any children surviving her?

A No, sir.

5. Now, then, Mrs. Rice, beginning with the oldest, kindly name all of your brothers and sisters living, as well as dead, together with your half-brothers and half-sisters.

A My father was married twice. The oldest is John Sulcer. He is married and his wife's name is Fannie Sulcer. They live near Jefferson, Maryland. I am the next. My husband is William H. Rice. Emma Catherine Rice is the next and her husband is Caleb Rice, who lives at No. 234 East Seventh Street, Frederick, Maryland. My sister, Emma Catherine Rice died many years before Susan V. Reynolds--in other words--directly after the World War. She left surviving her
